Headline

National Online Safety

The long summer break is fast approaching and everyone is beginning to think about what they can do over the holidays. If you feel it can be an uphill challenge to keep children away from harmful content on the internet, you need to read this!

National Online Safety believe in empowering parents, carers and trusted adults with the information they need to hold informed and age-appropriate conversations about online safety with their child. Every Wednesday they produce guides to focus on specific risks. You can find out more by emailing them at hello@nationalonlinesafety.com

As you know, we have our own policies in place to protect children using any IT equipment in school and we have robust systems in place at all times.

The Pupil E-Safety Curriculum:

- Has a clear, progressive e-safety education programme as part of the Computing/ PSHE curriculum. It is built on EYFS to Y6 curriculum guidance. This covers a range of skills and behaviours appropriate to their age and experience, including:

to STOP and THINK before they CLICK to develop a range of strategies to evaluate and verify information before accepting its accuracy

- to be aware that the author of a web site / page may have a particular bias or purpose and to develop skills to behaviour what that may be
- to know how to narrow down or refine a search
- to understand how search engines work and to understand that this affects the results they see at the top of the listings (KS2)

- to understand acceptable behaviour when using an online environment / email, i.e. be polite, no bad or abusive language or other inappropriate behavior
- keeping personal information private
- to understand how photographs can be manipulated and how web content can attract the wrong sort of attention
- to understand why on-line 'friends' may not be who they say they are and to understand why they should be careful in online environments
- to understand why they should not post or share detailed accounts of their personal lives, contact information, daily routines, location, photographs and videos and to know how to ensure they have turned-on privacy settings
- to understand why they must not post pictures or videos of others without their permission
