What a privilege it’s been for me to work with a group of year 5 children this term! The children finished off their learning project by performing their presentation to their classes. Read what they said about the learning project. If you are very lucky and ask nicely, they may even do their presentation for you or your class!

Jad 5QQ “Something I have learned in these lessons are facts about child labour, how to use a speaking frame, and key words.

The most enjoyable aspect of the lessons was saying the key words to the ceiling, to the floor and the door! Because it was fun to learning challenging words.

Something I will remember to do in class is to use the key word.

Mustafa 5EE “Somethings I have learned in these lessons are new words, child labour and six facts about it.

The most enjoyable aspect of these lessons was learning facts about child labour because I never knew about it.

Something I will remember to do in class is to use the key words in my book.”
Miyu 5WW “Something I have learned in these lessons are to use key words and actions to say facts.

The most enjoyable aspect of the lesson was saying our facts to other classes because someone said a nice comment to me, and the teacher was very proud.

Something I will remember to do in class is use key words in writing.”

Ali K 5QQ “Something I have learned in these lessons are to work with a partner, and facts about child labour.

The most enjoyable aspect of the lesson was learning facts about child labour and use actions.

Something I will remember to do in class is I teach my friends how to do it.”

Sama 5QQ Something I learned to do in these lessons are to use key words, speak confidently and clearly to my partner and facts about child labour.

The most enjoyable aspect of these lessons was introducing myself because everyone learned something new about each other.

Something I will remember to do in class is to use key words, speak clearly and confidently to my partner and other people.”

Qossay 5WW “Something I learned in these lessons are key words, like physically, mentally, and emotionally.

The most enjoyable aspect of the lessons was learning facts about child labour.

Something I will remember to do in class is to teach my friends new words and spellings.”

And as for me year five the most enjoyable aspect of teaching you was to see how you have become clear and confident speakers!
