

VACANCIES – Walking Bus To start as soon as possible

We need to recruit further adults to help with the walking bus to and from school to the Canadian Estate. These are paid positions and the adults will be expected to accompany children, keep them safe and use safe routes walking to school each morning and home again each afternoon. The walk takes approximately 30 mins each way and the bus is available every morning and afternoon during school term time. The position will also include a small amount of admin.

There will be no charge for children using this service and the school will provide reflective tabards for the children to wear.

The pay rate for this role will be Wiltshire Pay Grade B
(points 1-2)
£9.00 - £9.18 per hr.
