SCHOOL

END OF TERM

Could children please bring in a carrier bag on Monday to take home their belongings and work from school. On Wednesday it would be best for children to bring in as little as possible so please no book bags and if possible they can bring packed lunches in disposable containers.

The end of term service will begin at 2pm. Parents are welcome to join us and those that do can take their children directly from the church. Please remember there is no after school club on the last day of term.

AFRICAN DAY

The children have thoroughly enjoyed African Day today. They have learnt an authentic African dance and enjoyed performing it together.

ALI BABA & THE BONGO BANDITS

KS2 did us proud this week performing Ali Baba & The Bongo Bandits. The performance was enjoyed by parents & grandparents and feedback was fantastic. Well done everyone!

GOING FOR GOLD

On Monday, 15 children from years 2, 3 and 4 travelled to Spratton to take part in Going For Gold. The children were amazing and represented Barby fantastically. They came 7th out of 14 Schools. Well done to all!
