

Story starter!

Image by: Ian Pool

- ▶ Life was tough, being the Incredible Hulk.
- ▶ He had had a tiring week (as per normal), but today was his day off. Walking the dog had always been one of Hulk's favourite things to do on a Sunday. He could totally relax and put to the back of his mind all of the things that had made him feel stressed during the week.
- ▶ For years, Hulk had struggled to control his fierce temper and extraordinary strength, but very often things would still go badly wrong. On one occasion, he had become so angry with the traffic lights on his way to work that he had completely crushed the steering wheel. On another, he had punched a hole in the side of his house when trying to swat a fly! Just the other day, Hulk had stumped his toe on the corner of his bed, so had thrown his bed out of the window where it landed on top of next door's car...
- ▶ Today he was going to try his very best to not find himself in any embarrassing situations...

Sentence challenge!

- ▶ When you finish your writing can you make a tally chart showing how many times you have used the following word classes: noun, adjective, verb, adverb.
- ▶ A noun is an object or thing. An adjective is a describing word. A verb is an action, and an adverb describes the verb. Can you identify the word classes in the following sentence?
- ▶ Occasionally, the Hulk whistled as he drove his tiny Nissan Micra to work.

Image by: Ian Pool

Question time!

- ▶ Could the Hulk be incredible if he was skinny?
- ▶ We are all incredible at something. What are you incredible at?
- ▶ What else do you aspire to be incredible at in the future?
- ▶ If you could have super powers, what would you choose?
- ▶ What activities do you think Hulk would be good/bad at?
- ▶ What food do you think the Hulk eats?
- ▶ If you met Hulk, what questions could you ask him?

Sick sentences!

The Hulk walked through the park. He was big and green. His dog was small.

Perfect picture!

- ▶ Can you draw a picture of the Hulk doing something else unexpected? For example, he might be a fantastic cook, or enjoy riding on a skateboard!

