

Subject Specific Vocabulary			Exciting Books
Invention	The action of inventing something, typically a process or device.		<h3>Sticky Knowledge about pioneers</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Neil Armstrong was the first man to walk on the moon in 1969. <input type="checkbox"/> Humans cannot survive in space, due to a lack of water, food and oxygen. <input type="checkbox"/> The success of George Stephenson's steam locomotive, Rocket, led to locomotives being developed across the country, as well as the laying of railway tracks across the country. <input type="checkbox"/> In the Victorian era, children often had to work long hours, doing dangerous jobs, to help support their families. <input type="checkbox"/> George Cadbury had a positive influence on his worker's lives, by building affordable housing.
Pioneer	A person who is among the first to use or apply a new method, area of knowledge or activity.
Machines	An apparatus using mechanical power and having several parts	<h3>Important</h3> Isambard Kingdom Brunel played a key role in Britain's industrial revolution, designing and constructing railway lines, bridges, tunnels and docks around the country. Tim Peake is the UK's first official astronaut and the first British astronaut to go to the International Space station.
Transport	A system or means of taking people or goods from place to place.
Victorian	A person who lived during the Victorian period.
Astronaut	A person who is trained to travel in a spacecraft.
Space Shuttle	A reusable spacecraft designed to transport people and cargo between Earth and space.
Vehicles	A thing used for transporting goods or people, especially on land.
Industrial revolution	The period where changes in manufacturing and transportation occurred meaning more things were made using machines in large factories.
Monarchy	A form of government with a monarch at the head.
Workhouse	A public place in which poorer people worked and lived.
Locomotive	A powered railway vehicle used for pulling trains.

