

Times tables up to 12x12 and their inverse should still be practised each week. Spelling patterns will be taught every Monday and tested on Friday. Reading, at least, three times per week, will improve reading fluency, comprehension and reading stamina and this should be recorded on the reading log overleaf.

Creativity and Imagination Use your artistic and creative ideas to make something.	Design and make a working lighthouse.	Create a propaganda poster.	Design your own suitcase for an evacuee - what will you put in it?	Choose your own.
Learning and Communication Research and present your ideas.	Write a biography on a family member or someone you admire in the public eye.	How did Bath change after the war? Present your findings in any way you would like.	Interview someone who lived through the Blitz or research which countries were involved in World War Two? Label on a world map.	Research the Bath Blitz and present your findings in a style of your choice.
Citizenship Doing good and helping others.	Pick up litter around the school or around your local area.	Choose your own.	Become a play leader.	Make a present and a card for a family member or a friend.
Personal Development Helping you to prepare for the future.	Find war time recipes and price them out – what's the cheapest one you can find?	Plant some vegetables in your garden or in a pot.	Find a war-time recipe and cook it.	Learn your address and parents' mobile numbers. If you have a home phone learn that number too.
Collaboration Work with others to produce something great.	Make a film/radio show telling people what to do in the event of an incendiary bomb.	Make up a game with a friend or your sibling using only a pack of cards.	Learn a jive routine and teach somebody else.	With a friend or family member make a new item of clothing from an old item of clothing.
