

Sandbrook's Curriculum Blog

Art & Design

May 2019

Earlier on in the Spring, 10 pupils were successful in becoming Art Ambassadors.

We would like to introduce ourselves...

From year 1 Inayah and Mayara, year 2 Nirvana and Tayibah, year 3 Waliyah and Lily-Eve, year 4 Amna and Saleha and from year 6 Zoya and Isra

We all applied for the role by filling an application form. A few weeks from then, we had an interview. We were asked why we wanted to become an Art ambassador and what we thought would make a good Art ambassador. We were all overjoyed to find out that we had been chosen for such an important role. To be identified we wear a red Learning Ambassador badge, it is in the shape of a shield. We were also awarded with a certificate. We are all so privileged.

On World book day we were chosen to meet Author and Illustrator Fiona Woodcock who was visiting our school, she told us about the inspiration for her books and talked to us about how he creates her illustrations using stencils and stamps. Fiona told us than when she was a child she would draw all the time but didn't enjoy writing as much but she practised and improved. We all enjoyed the day so much.

Art workshops with Author and Illustrator Fiona Woodcock and the finished pieces from some Reception children.

When we had our first Art ambassador meeting it was very exciting because Fiona had sent us a special letter wishing us good luck in our role. She told us about her new book 'Hello' that is due out very soon, we are looking forward to seeing it. Fiona's book 'Look' has been shortlisted in the World Illustration Awards taking place at Somerset House in London.

<https://theaoi.com/via/fiona-woodcock-look/>

We think it's an amazing achievement as 3,700 Illustrators entered and she is in the final top 200. Fiona we wish you the very best of luck and we hope you win (we think you should!).

Thrilled with his own copy signed by Fiona and having fun at the workshop.

Two of our Art ambassadors with displays of artwork inspired by Fiona Woodcock's books.

