Additional information

Revision

There is enough capacity in the year to conduct occasional revision lessons to recap previous modules and keep them fresh in pupils' minds. We have run after school revision classes, sessions as part of Easter school and lunchtime 'catch-up' groups before and intend to continue this as necessary.

Further information

For further details about the course content, specification or exams, search for the course code on the AQA website (AQA 8658). Please feel free to get in touch with your child's French teacher if you have any questions.
