Harvest Celebration

As part of our Harvest celebrations, pupils are being asked to make a donation of food. There will be a competition, in which each class will be given a box to fill with tins and packaged food. These boxes will be forwarded to the Wood Street Mission, Well Spring Community Church and other food banks and charities that helps children and their families.

The final day that children can bring in food will be Tuesday 15th October 2019.

Please give only tinned or packaged food with at least a date of expiry of January 2020. Please see poster attached outlining items that are in high demand.

Thank you for your continued generosity and support with our Harvest celebrations.
