

Library update

The library refurbishment is now nearly complete. Last week, it was painted. Great big thanks to Mrs Cherrill, Mrs Walker and Miss Caborn for doing a great job. Then this Monday, the new carpet was laid. I am sure you will agree that it has made the library look much better.

Chester Zoo

Key Stage 2 had a great time at the zoo on Monday. Everyone saw animals they had never seen before and learnt lots of new facts about animals.

Harvest Festival

Just a reminder that it is Harvest festival next Fri (11th). We hope you can come along and join us in our celebration. If anyone can help us walk the children back to school, could you please let your child's teacher or the office know. Any tinned or packet foods would be gratefully received. Thanks and hope to see you there.

Liam didn't seem to enjoy the feeling of an orangutan's bed.

Online Safety

Do you know what your child is accessing online? Are they communicating with strangers? Are you aware of age restrictions? Is your child posting photos and videos which reveal private information? Are your child's accounts locked or private? Are they being appropriate? Please be vigilant and talk to your child about safety. There are lots of parent leaflets and helpful information on the website:
nationalonlinesafety.com

The NSPCC will also be delivering a workshop for parents in January (16th) based around online safety. Information to follow.
