

CHARGING POLICY

Introduction

The Governing Body recognises the valuable contribution that the wide range of additional activities, including clubs, practical activities, trips and residential experiences can make towards pupils' personal and social education.

The Governing Body aims to promote and provide such activities both as part of a broad and balanced curriculum for the pupils of the school and as additional optional activities.

1. Charging Policy

Any charges made by the school must meet the requirements of the Education Reform Act 1998. The governors endorse the guiding principles contained in the Act, in particular that no child should have his/her access to the curriculum limited by charges.

2. Charges

Charges will not be made for any activities which form part of the National Curriculum requirements. No charge can be made for education during school hours.

The Governing Body reserves the right to make a charge in the following circumstances for activities organised by the school.

2.1 Activities outside school hours

The full cost to each pupil of any activities deemed to be optional extras taking place outside school hours. This includes residential visits - a charge will be made for the cost of board, lodging and travel costs (subject to statutory exceptions) the cost will not exceed the actual cost of provision.

2.2 Individual/Group Instrumental Tuition

The cost for providing individual/group instrumental tuition - the charge will not exceed the cost of provision.

2.3 Charging in Kind

The cost of materials, ingredients (or provision of them by parents) for practical subjects.

2.4 Voluntary Contributions

The Governing Body may ask parents for a voluntary contribution towards the cost of any activity that takes place during school hours beyond the usual activities used to deliver the National Curriculum. Parents are under no obligation to make any contribution and pupils of parents who are unable or unwilling to contribute will not be discriminated against. In the event of insufficient voluntary contributions being made these activities may have to be cancelled and refunds will be given.

2.5 Breakages

In cases of wilful or malicious damage to equipment or breakages, or loss of school books or equipment on loan to pupils the Headteacher, in consultation with the Chair of the Governing Body, may decide to make a charge. Each incident will be dealt with on its own merit and at their discretion.

2.6 General

The Governing Body may, from time to time amend the categories for which a charge may be made.

If parents are experiencing financial difficulties and are struggling to meet the payments for any of the activities listed above, the Governing Body will consider accepting a contribution towards the activity.

REVIEW DATE: Autumn 2021