KS1 Multi-Skills festival

Key Stage 1 have been to the Elizabethan Academy this week to participate in a multi-skills festival. Even though some of the activities were challenging, everyone had a great time and tried really hard.

Football Success

A big well done to the football team this week who defeated Gamston in the first match of the season. All the players displayed a great attitude and did the school proud.

Disco

Many of you have enquired about a Halloween disco. As we will not be at school around Halloween, we have decided not to run a disco at this time. Instead there will be a disco in February for Valentine's Day.

After School Clubs

If your child would like to access any of the after school clubs next half term and you didn't get your form in, please do message or email me and I can add children to lists over the holidays so we can send out texts by Monday 4th Nov. Thanks

 We have children in school with nut allergies can we please ask that you refrain from sending nuts in your children's packed lunches / for snacks etc - Many thanks ***
