This Week at Stockingford

Dear parents,

It's been a busy week with visitors from the Academy Trust in school to help spot the things we do really well and, therefore, need to keep doing and, of course, to help identify areas to work on and develop further. The feedback from the parent questionnaire was considered as part of this process, so thank you again if you were able to contribute to that survey.

Improvements happen quickest and are most effective when people work as part of a team. We still have vacancies for parent governors, so if this is of interest to you, please do drop into the school office for more information.

In other news, there are spaces available in 'Stockingford Stars' before and after school club. The children who attend are really enjoying it - especially the food and variety of activities on offer. Do ask at the office if you'd like more information.

On Monday we are beginning the collection of food donations for our Harvest festivals. Children from Years 1 to 6 will be heading off to church next week to think about being thankful for the gifts of this season. As you may know, donated food will be given to the Food Bank. They have told us that at the moment they have plenty of tinned beans, tinned soup and dried pasta so if possible, when sorting your donation, could you avoid these items?

Finally, just a little reminder that smoking and vaping on the school site is not allowed and as much as I love them, please leave dogs at home!

Many thanks and have a lovely weekend!

Mrs Bowser
