

NEWSLETTER – 15.11.19

This week . . .

- On Monday, Mr Zarac (our new 'boss of history') led our two Remembrance Assemblies.

- It's been Anti-Bullying week in school. The NSPCC came in on Wednesday to work with children. On Tuesday, children (and staff) came to school with odd socks on to remind us all that we are all unique, different and special.
- On Wednesday, Class 17 led a fabulous assembly about World War II, which they are learning about this half term. The dance and the drama work was fabulous!

I hope you enjoyed the assembly if you came along to watch it. A HUGE well done to Class 17.

Holidays 2020 – 2021

If you are wanting to plan your holidays for NEXT school year, the holiday list is now on the website, along with the list for this school year. If you would like a hard copy, please pop in and collect one from the school office. Thank you.

This week's saying . . .

Get to the bottom of it.

Can your child tell you what it means? Can they use it in a sentence correctly?

Parent Governor Elections

Thanks to everyone who returned ballot papers for the elections. The results are as follows: Samira Ali – 22 votes, Mirza Beg – 21 votes, Zainab Kamran – 37 votes, Saima Mahmood – 31 votes. This means that Zainab Kamran and Saima Mahmood are our two new parent governors.

Next week . . .

- On Tuesday (19.11.19) Year 3 children are all off to The Museum of Lancashire to find out more about WWI.

- On Wednesday (20.11.19) Year 4 are also off on their Museum of Lancashire visit.
- On Wednesday (20.11.19) Class 7 will be leading their assembly. If you have a child in Mrs Hansen's class, you would be very welcome to join us to watch their assembly, which will be starting at 09:05.

Attendance

This week's attendance stars are classes 7 (98.5%) and 12 (99.3%) – well done to both!

Punctuality

There were no children late last week in classes 4 or 19 – well done to both, and COME ON everyone else! Get to school on time!!!
