

Dear Parent

We are delighted that poet Anneliese Emmans Dean will be visiting our school on Monday 25 November. She will perform poems from her award-winning science-meets-poetry books Flying High! ('Discover the Poetry in British Birds') and Buzzing! ('Discover the Poetry in Garden Minibeasts'), then put on poetry workshops with our Year 6 pupils. She has also offered to sign copies of her books for our pupils – at a special schools' discount price.

If you would like to purchase copies of Anneliese's books, to be signed and dedicated to your child, please fill in the reply slip below, indicating how many books you would like and who you would like the book/s dedicated to. Please include cash, or a cheque payable to: 'theBigBuzz'. Alternatively you can order online at: www.thebigbuzz.wordpress.com/store/schools

Flying High! won the 2017 York Culture Award for Excellence in Writing. The Foreword is by RSPB Vice-President and Yorkshire Wildlife President Prof. Sir John Lawton, who calls it 'a marvellous book'.

Buzzing! won the 2015 NS Teachers' Book Prize for poetry and was shortlisted for the Royal Society Young People's Book Prize. The Foreword is by the Bumblebee Conservation Trust, and it's a National Insect Week recommended book.

Both books are full-colour paperbacks featuring a mixture of 'edu-taining' poems, fascinating facts and stunning photos. You can find out more, see samples and read reviews at: www.thebigbuzz.wordpress.com/books

The books retail at £9.99, but Anneliese is offering our pupils a special offer price of £8.00 each, or both books for £15 (a saving of £4.98).

Yours sincerely

Please return this slip to your teacher by Monday 25th November.
