Introduction

This policy sets out the classes of information that Elevate Multi Academy Trust and / or its Academies publish and the terms on which that information may be made available to those who request it. It is based on the generic model publication for academies scheme prepared and approved by the Information Commissioner.

Principles

This publication scheme commits Elevate and/or its Academies to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where this information is held. Additional assistance is provided to the definition of these classes in sector specific guidance manuals issued by the Information Commissioner.

The scheme commits Elevate and/or its Academies:

- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by Elevate and/or its Academies and falls within the classifications below;
- To specify the information which is held by Elevate and/or its Academies and falls within the classifications below;
- To proactively publish or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme;
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public;
- To review and update on a regular basis the information Elevate and/or its Academies makes available under this scheme;
- To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available;
- To make this publication scheme available to the public.

The classes of information that Elevate and/or its Academies publishes includes:

Who we are and what we do

Organisational information, locations and contacts, constitutional and legal governance.

What we spend and how we spend it

Financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement and contracts.

What our priorities are and how we are doing

Strategy and performance information, plans, assessments, inspections and reviews.

How we make decisions

Policy proposals and decisions. Decision making processes, internal criteria and procedures, consultations.

Our policies and procedures

Current written protocols for delivering our functions and responsibilities.

Lists and Registers

Information held in registers required by law and other lists and registers relating to the functions of Elevate and/or its Academies.

The Services We Offer

Advice and guidance, booklets and leaflets, transactions and media releases. A description of the services offered.

The classes of information Elevate and/or its Academies publishes will not generally include:

- Information the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage, or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

Procedures

The method by which information published under this scheme will be made available

Elevate and/or its Academies will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this scheme and how it can be obtained.

Where possible, Elevate and/or its Academies will provide information on its website. Where it is impracticable to make information available on a website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, Elevate and/or its Academies will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means.

In exceptional circumstances some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where Elevate and/or its Academies is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

Charges which may be made for information published under this scheme

The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by Elevate and/or its Academies for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum. A schedule of charges is currently in development.

Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge.

Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- photocopying
- postage and packaging
- the costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information

Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are legally authorised, they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment will be requested prior to provision of the information.

Written Requests

Information held by Elevate and/or its Academies that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, when its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

The method by which information published under this scheme will be made available

The table in Appendix 1 identifies the information which meets the requirements of the Information Commissioner.

If the Academy declines your request:

If you do not accept our reasons for declining to disclose the information requested you should write to the Chair of the Board of Trustees at Elevate in the first instance.
