

NEWSLETTER – 29.11.19

This week . . .

- ▲ The Christmas decorations have gone up, and school looks absolutely magical!
- ▲ The building work has all been finished in the EYFS hall, and it looks (and sounds) AMAZING!
- ▲ Stay & play sessions have been held in nursery, class 3 and class 4. Thanks to all families that were able to come along.
- ▲ Some children have been involved in a special art project, working with an artist to make lanterns. They look fabulous!
- ▲ Class 10 led their assembly this week about Vicious Volcanoes. Thanks to everyone that came to watch, and well done class 10!

Poppy Appeal

A HUGE thanks to children, families, staff, governors and friends for buying poppies etc. We raised a massive £410 for the Royal British Legion! Thanks to School Council for organizing the fundraising so well.

Dates for your diary . . .

- ▲ 04.12.19 – Trip to the pantomime for Y1 – Y6 / treat for nursery and reception children.
- ▲ 16.12.19 at 14:00 – EYFS nativity. 17.12.19 at 10:00 – EYFS nativity.
Tickets for the nativity are available from the school office – two per family to start off with.
- ▲ 18.12.19 – Infant parties in the afternoon.
- ▲ 19.12.19 – Junior parties in the afternoon.
- ▲ 19.12.19 – SCHOOL CLOSSES AT THE USUAL TIME FOR THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.

Next week . . .

- ▲ EYFS children will be having their treat on Wednesday morning, and the rest of the school are off to see Sleeping Beauty.
- ▲ Children who would like to send Christmas cards, can start bringing them into school from next Monday. PLEASE remember to put the first name, last name and the class of the person the card is for on the front of the envelope!

Attendance

This week's attendance stars are class 7 (99%) and class 17 (95.9%) – well done to both!

Punctuality

There were no children late last week in classes 6, 7, 17 or 19 – well done all!

This week's saying . . .

Make ends meet.

Can your child tell you what it means? Can they use it in a sentence correctly?
