Dear Parents / Carers

As we come to the end of the term, I'm delighted to announce that both Miss Roe and Mrs Kemp are expecting babies next year. Miss Roe, who is expecting twins, will be with us up to Easter, and Mrs Kemp until June. Everyone at St Saviours is very pleased at this wonderful news.

You may have seen the recent performance league tables on Monday in the press. All of us at St Saviours were extremely happy to see us in the top 10 of schools again, finishing 8th. Our expected writing results were jointly the best in Bolton. What the tables don't show, which we are also pleased about, are that children continued to show great progress as they moved through school.

We say goodbye to our two students on Friday. They have been fantastic in school this half term. I know they will carry on in the same way in future placements.

The hamper raffle has been drawn, thanks to all who bought tickets. The only prize not claimed is a hamper won by Emily Day. We will inform you of the final total from the Christmas Fair in January.

Finally can I wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Peaceful Happy New Year.

Yours sincerely

I Southern
Headteacher
