The events will be broken down in the following format, they can compete in one or both.

Kata. (Solo form)

Kumite (sparring)

Children will be divided on the day into appropriate categories based on grade, size and gender.

The children would have their normal lunch at school, change into their Karate kit and leave at 12.40. They should return to school by 3.40, where they should be collected promptly.

Children will be supervised at the venue by staff at the Karate association and therefore a member of staff from school is not attending. Parents are very welcome to spectate and travel to the event will be via Parent's cars. The school would recommend a parent to stay at the event, but this is your decision to make. If you are not collecting your child/staying with them at the event – please let us know below, who will be (This includes if at the event you are leaving them in the care of the Karate Association).

If you are not staying with your child at the event, please make sure have made arrangements for a prompt collection at 3.40pm.

Many Thanks

Mrs. Atwal
