

FLORA NEWS

A very big thank you to author and illustrator, William Grill, who spent the day at Flora Gardens on Wednesday presenting to the whole school in an assembly and running individual class workshops.

Pupils created their own narrative illustrations.

FLYING EYE BOOKS

On Friday 18th October, school finishes at 3.30pm for the half term break. Pupils return to school on Monday 28th October. Holidays are not permitted during term time.

There will be no Pasta King next week as the majority of the older pupils are away at the farm.

The first class cake sale of the year will be by Nursery Class on Thursday 17th October at 3.30pm.

Nursery parents are asked to bring/make some cakes for the class to sell, as the competition begins to see which class can raise the most money.

Don't forget to bring a bit of money if you wish to buy a cake!

Year 2 enjoy a movie and treats for winning the class cake sale competition last year!

Thank you to the parents and friends who attended the Macmillan Coffee Morning – thanks to your generosity we managed to raise £227 for this very important charity.

Friday 18th October International Dress Up Day

Another fun opportunity for pupils to wear traditional dress from yours/your family's ethnic origin, as Black History Month comes to an end.

International Evening was a huge success as usual. The food was incredible and the atmosphere was great! Thank you to Miss Kelly and Siobhan for organising such a fun night, Anthony for stepping in as quiz master, and to Mr Hakl for running the crèche. We raised over £400 for the school!

Well done to the winning team!

A great day out in Wormwood Scrubs on Wednesday for the Year 5 and 6 cross country tournament.

36 Year 5 & 6 pupils became farmers today, as they headed off on a week long adventure to Nethercott Farm in Devon. You can keep up to date with them by following our Twitter - @floragardensw6

We received a message from Mrs Brand - While we were having lunch a member of the public stopped and commented on the behaviour of the children. To quote "it's wonderful to see such well behaved children with lovely manners."

Wednesday 16th October at 9.00am Parents and Friends of Flora Association (PTA) Annual General Meeting.

Location: Old School Office.
