Dear parents, pupils, governors, staff and parishioners,

Reception

Reception have had a great week this week celebrating Chinese New Year. The children have used their talents to create a Chinese Dragon which they paraded around the hall as well as making masks. Well done children.

Archbishop Visit

On Sunday the Archbishop is visiting the Parish. You are all invited to the 10.15am Mass at Princethorpe. It would be lovely to see some families there.

Safer Internet Day

Safer Internet Day is on Tuesday 11th February. It is designed to empower young people to take control of their digital lives. This year, the focus is on online identity and asking young people to consider whether they and their peers are truly free to be themselves online.

Alton Castle

For parents who wish to pay in instalments for this Y6 residential trip, the first of the 4 instalments of £30 was due today. Cash or cheque payable to Our Lady's School please.

Fitbit Watches

A number of children are wearing Fit Bit watches to school. These are beginning to cause distraction in class. In KS1 a Fit Bit watch is now not allowed and KS2 staff are going to further monitor the use of them before we ask that children don't wear them to school anymore. Thank you for your co-operation on the matter.
