TRUST

This term our Christian Value is Trust.

Scholastic are coming into school on 12th February to promote their books.

The books will be in school from 10th February for the whole week and so orders can be placed at any point that week. Should the children wish to purchase any books that we run out of or that are not a part of the book fair, they can be ordered the day before collection on the 17th and will be delivered when the team come to take the resources back with them.
