FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Parish Mass Book page 133 , Order of Mass, page 7

When my laptop won't connect to the internet, or if the boiler suddenly breaks down it makes me aware of all the things I take for granted. There is a dark side to technology though. I was watching people on holiday glued to their laptops, tablets and phones ignoring those with them; it has been described as 'fractured presence'; and no wonder. Have you ever tried talking to someone who is texting or scrolling through Facebook while you're speaking to them? At best you are getting about half of their attention.

Our world is full of new ways of communicating but is it always helping us to allow our light really to shine for others? Jesus warns against hiding our light under a tub; perhaps we have a tendency to hide behind our computer or smartphone screen. How real are our interactions with others online? And when we are spending time with family or friends, are we really present?

Patrick Kavanagh once wrote: 'We have tested and tasted too much; through a chink too wide, there comes in no wonder'. Are we allowing

This Week's News.

Parish Safeguarding Audit: Parish volunteers.

Recently you were asked to provide your details for the audit submitted to the Archdiocese. Now there's a follow up form that needs to be completed. Given the amount of work that our Safeguarding Reps have, it would assist them if you could come to a meeting to complete the next phase of paperwork on either: Sat. 14th Feb from 11.00-12.00pm at All Saints or Sat 29th Feb. from 10.30-11.30pm at St Lewis church.

For your convenience you can come to either meeting to complete your

Support for Refugees

A number of people in both churches are knitting warm jumpers for children, or strips to be made into blankets, which are all being sent to the Refugee & Asylum-Seekers Centre in Liverpool. We would be grateful if more knitters would offer to join in the effort; wool and patterns can be provided. Perhaps some non-knitters might like to donate some wool to be used?? (Aran and Double Knitting please.) This is an ongoing project

Thank you to all the generous people who helped to raise £101.10 at

All Saints Club: an evening with Billy Scott & The Jetsons featuring Chris Britton on Friday 6th March, in aid of maintenance of the cemetery at All Saints. Tickets are on sale now after Mass in both churches, or

The next Synod meeting: 'How we pray together' will be on Wednesday 19th Feb. in the Benedict room following evening mass. Please do

Our Parish Council will meet once again on Monday 17th February beginning at 7.00pm in the Benedict Room at All Saints Church.

The next Synod meeting will take place on Wednesday 19th March straight after evening Mass at All Saints in the Benedict Room.

St Lewis Church: Dampwork. Unfortunately, the work has continued for longer than anticipated The extension at the back of the sacristy is pulling away from the main building and requires securing and loose brickwork needs to be made good. Then they can get on with sorting out the rest of the damp work. Let's pray our patience is

Tuesday Afternoon Club. The next meeting of the Afternoon Club is on Tuesday 18th February at 2.00 pm in the Benedict Room at All Saints

First Reconciliation New week our children will be celebrating their First Reconciliation as part of their preparation to receive Holy Communion. The two services will be on Tuesday 11th February beginning at 6.30pm in All Saints Church and on Thursday 13th February again beginning at 6.30 pm in St Lewis church. Please do

We are about to order new offertory envelopes. If you wish to start using envelopes or no longer need a box, please fill in a form which you will find in the porch and give it to Fr Gordon as soon as possible.

World Day of Prayer (formerly Women's World Day of Prayer) is an annual ecumenical service held on the first Friday of March, rotating around the churches locally. It is the turn of All Saints to host the service this year which will be on Friday 6th March beginning at 2.00pm. Mel Humphrey is our co-ordinator and she is looking for any interested parties to contact her so that we can organise it appropriately. Ring her on 07969335272. Of course, there is World Day of Prayer for the Croft/Culcheth Ecumenical Deanery which will take place on the same day at

Please remember in your prayers: the sick of our community, those who have died recently and all whose anniversaries occur at this time.
