

Tedder School Books and Bakes Sale: FAQ

Where do I need to be? - The sale will be held in the school hall on Friday the 6th March (World Book Day!) It will take place after school pick up - 16:00.

What do I need to bring? - You and your family. We are hoping to have books to suit all age ranges and interests (plus who doesn't like cake on an Friday afternoon?!)
- Dont forget your purse/wallet!!

How much will the books cost? - To make things very simple all books and bakes will cost 50p. So please bring plenty of change, so unless you want to refill your whole bookcase or buy all the PTA cakes, please only bring small notes or loose change!!

How can I help? - We need donations of books and bakes please!!

Books- these can be delivered to school, either dropped in by parents or brought with kids from the 2nd March. If you have several books you wish to donate and are unable to deliver them to school, we are happy to collect them, please email the PTA (friendsofdigbytedder@gmail.com) or see a FB post regarding this nearer the time.

Bakes - all types of cakes, bakes or delicious treats accepted. These don't have to be homemade, we only ask that they don't contain nuts, and if they are dairy free/ gluten free etc. please can they be labeled as such, so the kids/parents can pick suitable treats!

What sort of books will be at the sale?- We will be accepting all types of books, fiction, non-fiction, suitable for all age ranges.

What will happen to the left-over books? - All suitable books will be offered to the school as a donation to stock their library. Any not suitable will be donated to local charity shops, or offered to local causes.

What if my child attends wraparound? - If your child is attending wraparound that day, we will make sure those kids that wish to, are able to have a quick look around/shop before they leave. Please if giving your child money, place it in a labeled envelope to avoid disappointment of it getting lost.
