

WOMAN'S HOUR

Weekdays 10-11am, Saturdays 4-5pm

Webster's 2013 Horrors of War project with Manchester Camerata was featured on BBC Radio 4's Woman's Hour Programme on Friday 22nd November 2013.

The 8 minute clip can be heard by clicking the link below...

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p01m25mv>

Manchester Camerata and the horrors of war

DURATION: 8 MINUTES

Primary school children in Manchester create a mini-opera about the Holocaust

Horrors of War on Radio 4 Woman's Hour

Fri 22nd Nov 2013 - 14:00

Camerata musicians and a dramatist have been working with Year 6 students from Webster Primary School to explore the holocaust from the victim perspective and to create a semi-staged mini opera. The students have developed their own narrative and drama and composed their own music and lyrics.

Hear all about Horrors of War on BBC Radio 4's Woman's Hour

BBC Radio 4's Woman's Hour did an exclusive on Horrors of War today. Click here to listen again and tune in at 24:46, where you can hear exclusive snapshots of rehearsals and interviews with participants and our practitioners.

Horrors of War is an ongoing Learning and Participation project that sees primary school children learning all about the holocaust whilst exploring their artistic and creative talents.

The new piece of music theatre will be shared as a pre-concert performance before Manchester Camerata's concert The Voice of God on 22 November.

