Hand-Washing and Hygiene

We are of course keeping up-to-date with all the current news, we are in daily receipt of DfE advice and we are in contact with fellow schools. All the advice points to two very key areas:

- Thorough and regular hand-washing with soap.
- Don't panic.

At school we are keenly following these areas.

World Book Day

WOW! What a wonderful day created by Professor McGonagall Rawlinson. There were so many spectacular costumes and outfits on display to help us celebrate the magic of books.

During the day, the Hogwarts pupils travelled through a number of different lessons all linked to J.K Rowling's Harry Potter books which included:

- Taking care of magical creatures (the wonderful guinea-pigs), broomstick flying, swishing wands which reciting tricky word structures, herbology, mixing potions, playing Quidditch, defence against the dark arts and writing with quills. The Saplings also enjoyed their own special Hogwarts World Book Day activities.

Do please ask your children about their day.

A special lunch created by Mrs Adamson was served on long tables in The Great Hall which was tremendous fun.

The Hogwarts World Book Day party after school was an active and scrumptious extension of the school day; thank you for the bountiful amount of party food which was served once again in The Great Hall.

Our greatest thanks go to Mrs Moore for the loan of so much Harry Potter memorabilia, it helped transform the day.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Happy Birthday to Finlay Dodington-Boyes and Isobel Precious who celebrated their birthday this week, and to Felicity Ginn who will celebrate her birthday over the weekend.

Please don't forget that every child requires a raincoat with a hood, or a hat, at school every day. Hoodies aren't waterproof.

Redwood Class to Easingwold Community Library

Mrs Pearson received a very nice letter back from the Easingwold Community Library following last week's visit by Redwood class. The letter states that: "the library volunteers really enjoyed the visit of the Year 5 and 6 pupils. They were well behaved, polite and curious. They are a credit to your school." Well done children, Mrs Pearson is very proud.

School Council Coffee Morning

Lovely to see so many people stay and enjoy the Children's Council coffee morning and chat this morning. The money raised will be put towards our reading shed project. Thank you so much to those who baked and donated the cakes and biscuits which sold so well.
