Anlaby Primary School

'Ambitious, Proud, Successful'

This Week's Data Whole School Attendance

95% - Satisfactory

Well done to Inkpen, who had an attendance of 98% and Herge who had an attendance of 98%.

They will get an extra five minutes playtime.

This week's winners of the Anlabee Challenge will be announced on Monday in Assembly.

Parking on First Lane

Please be mindful of the residents of First Lane and the surrounding area when parking for drop off and collection at school and particularly for special events such as the Christmas Fair.

We have had a number of complaints that people have parked over people's drive ways. This of course makes it impossible for people to leave their drives.

Please help us to keep the neighbours happy!

13th December 2019

This Week

Simmons have been looking at finding the longest and the shortest of things. They have also been practising really hard for their performance to parents.

Inkpen and Rosen have been working very hard on their Nativity performance and also managed to squeeze in phonics, writing and maths!

Sharratt and Donaldson have been writing letters to Santa and I'm sure they will all be on the nice list! They had a fantastic visit from Sam's Safari to end their topic.

Potter and Ahlberg have been writing non-chronological reports on moles as part of their tunnels project. They have also done some wonderful singing for Mince Pies and Magic.

Murphy and Dahl have been writing calligrammes (shape poems) about volcanoes and learning about rocks and fossils in science.

Morpurgo and Kinney had all the parents in to look at the work they have created in their Blue Abyss topic and spectacular it was too.

Hergé and Walliams have been building models of Alchemy Island and learning about contour lines. They also had their regular readers reward.

Shakespeare and Rowling have been creating blood inspired art as part of their Blood Heart project. In RE they have been looking at Christmas both religious and secular and what it means to them.

Mr May

Christmas Fair

We had a wonderful Christmas Fair last Friday. The school was heaving with people all trying to get to the excellent stalls that the teachers and children had helped to create.

The chocolate tombola and the raffle proved to be very popular with some really excellent prizes.

We hope you managed to find a gift or two that will help with your Christmas shopping as well as helping us raise £1,600 for school funds.

Much of the money raised will go to buying new books for the library as we work on raising the profile of reading for pleasure throughout school.

Christmas Cards and Mugs

Thank you to everyone who bought Christmas cards and mugs. Your kind contributions helped us raise £283.25 and you also got some rather good cards to send to relatives and friends this Christmas season.

View from the Classroom Floor

Last week Y2 made some yummy chocolate spoons that were sold out in record time at the Christmas Fair.

This week Year 6 have been doing word art with Christmas pictures. I drew a roast turkey which looks very funny!

Year 5 have done a non-chronological report on their class novel Kensuke's Kingdom.

Have a great weekend.

Sophie, Honey, Joseph, Lily and Lola.

The Hive Out of School Club

We have had a very festive week at The Hive. We have experimented with different ways to design Christmas trees such as by using origami, sculpting with pasta and painting using forks.

We have also had fun making our own snow, playing jingle-bell pong, creating decorations and starting work on our 2020 calendars to take home.

A massive congratulations to Team Emanuel who won our annual Christmas Quiz with a fantastic score of 60 out of 63.

Christingle Service

Although we were unable to go to St Peter's due to the rain, we still managed to have a lovely Christingle service at School.

The Reverend John Telford came and explained all about the symbolism of the Christingle itself.

The children did a lovely rendition of It was on a Starry Night and the hall looked magical with all the lights shining.

Thank you to all the parents, carers and grandparents who joined us.

I could hear the singing all the way round the store and it made it a pleasure to do my weekly shop.

They looked as if they were really enjoying themselves.

It is my birthday today and I have sat with my friend in the café and listened to the wonderful singing. It has really made my day.

What wonderful singing and such well-behaved children.

The singing made packing my shopping bags a real pleasure.

What wonderful singing they must be real role models for the school.

Questionnaire

If you could not come to the coffee morning but would like to complete a questionnaire please call in at the office to collect one or ask your child's class teacher to pop one in a book bag.

I would like Mr May to know...
