7th February 2020

This Week

Simmons have had great fun exploring textures and mud! They have made bear footprints and scratches.

Inkpen and Rosen have been writing letters to the bear, playing with clay, and junk modelling. In Maths they have been looking at many different ways there are to make 10.

Sharratt and Donaldson have been writing dinosaur poems and creating dinosaur silhouettes.

Potter and Ahlberg have been drawing their journey to and from school and using their geographical skills to add human and physical features of the landscape to their route.

Murphy and Dahl have been exploring the workings of magnets. In English they have been re-writing a Greek myth. In Maths they are looking at division.

Morpurgo and Kinney have been using their computing skills and their geographical skills to look at and compare Ancient Rome with modern Rome.

Hergé and Walliams have been carrying out research in groups so each group can become an expert on an aspect of Ancient Egyptian life. When they have finished they will share their information with each other so they can all become experts.

Shakespeare and Rowling have completed their Day of the Dead masks and evaluated them when their parents were in on Tuesday. They have used their geography skills to look at landmarks in Mexico. In English they have been writing their own version of a chapter from the book 'Holes'.

Afternoon Tea

Thank you to everybody who came to our afternoon tea session. Altogether we had about 150 parents, carers, grandparents and other relatives in to see how the children were getting on.

The hall was packed as cups of tea, coffee and biscuits were enjoyed by all.

The chance to go around the classes and see how the children engage in our creative curriculum proved very popular. It has been particularly good to have an afternoon session this time as it has allowed some different people a chance to see what happens in school.

In the future we would like to make our sessions really useful to you and maybe address some of the ways in which you can support your children's learning at home.

If you have any suggestions for areas we can help you with such as reading, phonics, Maths etc pop them on the slip at the end of the newsletter and return them to

View from the Classroom Floor

This week Year 4 have been writing persuasive letters to Emperor May to convince them that their mosaics are the best in the class. We hear the competition has been very hard.

In Year 5 they have been writing an amazing story by themselves. They have based it on an Egyptian film that they watched.

In Year 6 they have been finishing their amazing Mexican masks and they look very good.

There has also been some amazing PE work in Year 6 as they got the apparatus out. It was great fun to develop our gymnastic skills.

Honey, Lola, Joe, Sophie B and Betsy.

Bikes and Scooters

Thank you to all the parents who gave reminders to their children about riding on the school site. It has been much safer for everybody this week.

Let's keep this up and make sure the school site is a safe place to be.

Dates for your Diary

More dates, times and details to follow.

Clubs in School

At our afternoon tea last week, some of the parents were asking the Governors about the clubs that happen in school other than the sports ones. So here is a list of clubs current, or soon to be, happening in school.

Mrs Grout – Art and Crafts

Mr Coombe – Computer Club

Mr Coombe and Miss Davies – Year 6 Booster

Miss Taylor Wood – Gardening

Mr Appleyard – Radio Anlaby! Watch out or should I say listen out for where and when you can catch the first show.

Mrs Richards and Miss Newton – Year 2 Reading Club

Miss Hall – Book Bistro

Miss Davies – Choir

Miss Taylor Wood – Lunchtime Club. This runs every day of the week with children from certain years being allowed on different days. There are different activities each week, including: fitness, crafting, construction, games and colouring.

There is probably a lot more going on in school than you realise because some of the clubs do not cover the year group your child is in. We are always looking for ways in which we can increase the number and range of clubs we offer.

If you have any suggestions for clubs your children might like, please write them on the reply slip and we can see if we have an adult in school who might be interested in putting one on. Or, if you are really passionate about something, why not volunteer to come in to school and help run one yourself.

The Hive Out of School Club

This week our activities have linked to the Foundation topic 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt'. We have designed giant bears using symmetry and carved apples to create paw print patterns.

We have also started to look at Ancient Egypt, compiling travel guides and creating mosaics.

We have also been extremely busy learning how to play chess, exploring the marble run, and working hard to complete our new Lego sets.

Congratulations to Mrs Emanuel's team who stormed to victory on our quiz for the third month in a row!

Our table tennis champion of the week is Leo, who managed to beat Miss Stanley and Miss Fleming during some fantastic matches.

For more information email us on thehiveanlaby@gmail.com or check us out on our Facebook page or Twitter.

Have a great weekend.

Miss Stanley

I would like Mr May to know...
