Mrs Gibbins

Hello everybody. I hope you managed to have some sort of half term.

I have slightly changed the home learning packs this week. I have kept the Hamilton trust maths at the moment. But I have included more topic based English work. I have also included some Science and RE work this week.

Please keep e-mailing, it makes me smile. A little video is even better. I have had some of these and they are lovely.

We are sending out the Home Learning Tasks in Word format again but know that some of you had difficulties with this format. (We are also struggling to send out the PowerPoints due to capacity.) Please email blueclass@easthaddonprimary.com if you would like us to send you the pdf versions and PPTs.
