One-off and Irregular Spellings

Challenge 1

1 Put a tick or a cross in the boxes to say whether the underlined word is spelled correctly in each of these sentences.
   a) The man had severe toothake.
   b) The farmer owned hundreds of acres of land.
   c) They had to do it agen because they got it wrong first time.

2 Circle the word that is spelled correctly in these sentences.
   a) His birthday is in February / February / Febury.
   b) We’re going to Eygpt / Egipt / Egypt.
   c) Nooria was a very honest / onest / honist girl.

Challenge 2

1 In these sentences, the underlined word has been spelled as it sounds, not as it should be spelled. Correct the spellings.
   a) ‘There is no correct anser,’ said the teacher. ________________
   b) The runners did a sirkit of the track by running all the way round it. ________________
   c) The court case involved a famous loyer. ________________
   d) The day after Tuesday is Wensday. ________________
   e) ‘Hoo did that?’ shouted the head teacher. ________________
   f) The children were too yung to go on the ride as it said ‘Adults only’. ________________
   g) The ship sailed across the oweshun on its way to America. ________________
   h) The erth travels around the sun. ________________
   i) Fizzical activity is good for you. ________________
   j) The amazing jewel was a one-off – it was totally yooneek. ________________