Task 5
Drawing from Reading

The old train stood at the platform as three young brothers prepared for their journey. Each sat atop a brown suitcase with an identification tag around their neck made from paper and string. They all wore their best coats (which were far too big for them) and their smart, brown boots. Their concern and anxious thoughts were clear from their faces as they huddled together to comfort one another.

Read the sentences carefully and note any key words.

Now can you draw what has been described
