

Monday 13th July

Good Morning

Each morning the Reading Ambassador, for each class, would go to the Poetry Tree to collect the daily poem. The teacher or the ambassador would share the poem with the whole class – I am hoping you will be able to read the poem each day to your child so that they can continue to discover and explore the deeper meanings and connections of the world – thank you for your support with this.

July

honesty is the key

Who would true valour see

Who would true valour see,
Let him come hither;
One here will constant be,
Come wind, come weather.
There's no discouragement
Shall make him once relent
His first avow'd intent,
To be a pilgrim.

Whoso beset him round
With dismal stories,
Do but themselves confound,
His strength the more is.
No lion can him fright,
He'll with a giant fight,
But he will have a right
To be a pilgrim.

Hobgoblin, nor foul fiend,
Can daunt his spirit;
He knows he at the end
Shall life inherit.
Then fancies fly away,
He'll fear not what men say,
He'll labour night and day
To be a pilgrim.

50 things to do before you're 11³/₄

Get your kids closer to nature with '50 things to do before you're 11³/₄'. There's plenty of outdoor activities to do all year round, from watching the sunset to creating some wild art. Many can be done at home and in your garden.

If you want to print of the poster and tick off every time you complete one of the activities, we have uploaded it to our website under 'Home Learning' or you could visit

<https://www.nationaltrust.org.uk/features/50-things-to-do-before-youre-11--activity-list>

We will share any completed posters in an assembly in September.

Here is the daily challenge!

Give yourself 30 seconds - 1 minute to memorise the images..

Take the images away – how many can you remember?

Have a good day
