THE BIG TALK! Being Safe and Happy —

Anti Bullying Week

The children have come up with some great ideas for being happy at Southroyd , so I thought we'd share some with you:

Keeping smiling
Enjoying class
Keeping chatting
School parties
Drink juice with dinner
Have a mouth (speaking up!)
Wetting teachers at the Summer Fair
Happy kind hands and feet
Having visitors
Playing with nice friends
Dressing up box in class
Growing beans
More stories in school
Everyone be happy!
And of course—GOING TO THE CHRISTMAS WINTER WONDERLAND AND FAIR!
You might like to talk to your child about what makes them happy at school and see if they can add a few extras to their own personal list—smiling, chatting and speaking up are all good life skills! We will see what we can do about juice and dressing up boxes!

BADGE OF HONOUR FOR OUR WONDERFUL VEGETABLE GARDEN

Mrs. Rice has completed the Level 3 Campaign for School Gardening benchmark scheme—showcasing all the fantastic work she has led with children and families in school.

I am so proud to say we have achieved the award and along with the fantastic recognition of this achievement we also receive a 'Large vegetable Garden' pack containing a selection of more than 200 plug plants ready to ensure we continue with the good work in the next growing cycle.

The RHS have made a special mention about the 'fantastic evidence' Mrs. Rice provided and are pleased to see our progress—well done Mrs. Rice for being an inspiration and providing the perspiration behind this work!

WINTER WONDERLAND AND CHRISTMAS FAIR

Winter Wonderland Treasure Hunt on Saturday 30th November, between 5pm and 7pm. Come along to our fantastic, magical, woodland treasure hunt and follow the clues to find the Winter Wonderland. Please bring a torch and make sure you wear waterproof footwear! The cost will be £2 per person, including refreshments. You can turn up on the night!

Christmas Fair will be THIS Sunday, 1st December, between 12pm and 3pm. LIDOS , the panto cast will be opening the fair and Stuart Andrew, our MP and Jamie –Jones Buchanan , amazing rugby league player for the Rhinos, will be joining us during the afternoon .This year we have a lovely variety of stalls - over 30 now! We also have our amazing Santa experience at fantastic value and brand new snow globe experience to enjoy!

If you haven't bought your raffle tickets yet, it's not too late—collect from the office or buy at the fair—wonderful prizes including: 7 inch tablet, £50 cash, hampers and much more.

Priesthorpe Takeover Day

On Thursday 21st November four children from Southroyd went to Priesthorpe ,to take part in Takeover day, and experience what it would be like to be an adult !

These are our roles:

Ella White - Main Receptionist

Rhona Innes - Music/Drama helper

Emma Okpala- P.E. teacher/helper

Daniel Carass- RM/I CT Technician

When we arrived in Mr Manton's car, we signed in at the office and received special visitor badges. We dropped everyone at the stations, where they would be working alongside an adult at Priesthorpe, whilst Mrs Walker and Mr Manton got a tour of the school.

We worked as technicians, administrators and teachers until at about 11:05, Emma and her P.E. teacher went to the cafeteria to buy chocolate cake and Daniel got a chocolate orange! There were a lot of jobs inbetween, with Daniel helping to keep the school computers working properly.

After lunch, Emma refereed the Y10 girls in hockey, and got to take the whistle home that she used. Ella worked in the main office and signed people in to the school—even being called Miss White! Finally, Rhona took pictures of the school and wrote a report for Priesthorpe's news letter about her experience supporting music.
