Residents are being asked to pay their respects from home on Remembrance Sunday due to the new national restrictions.

Plans to mark the day now include:

- Private services streamed on social media
- Cenotaphs are being lit up across the Wigan Borough
- Poppy road markings installed this week
- Residents are encouraged to hold two-minute silence on their doorsteps.

Private services from Wigan and Leigh will be shared via the Wigan Town Centre page and the Leigh Town Centre page so please follow them if you would like to watch the services on Sunday.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

It is still not too late to bring in boxes as they are now being collected on Thursday 12th November. Many thanks in anticipation of your support

CHILDREN IN NEED DAY

On Friday 13th November we are asking all children to wear something yellow or spotty in exchange for a small donation to help support the 'Children In Need charity'.
Thank you in advance.

PARENTS EVENING UPDATE

Unfortunately this year, it will not be possible to host a parents evening as usual. Therefore, you will receive a short paper report from the class teacher today, which will inform you about how your child has settled into their new class and also include their strengths and any gaps in their learning.

If you have any further questions after receiving the report then please refer to the parents evening letter dated 16th October and liaise with the class teacher via dojo.

Many Thanks
