Dear Parent /Carer

The nurses came into school yesterday to deliver the 'Nasal Flu Vaccinations'. We believe some children, whose parents had given their consent, did not receive it.

The project is now completely organised by IntraHealth in conjunction with the NHS. The school doesn't receive any of the parental consent forms, and has no access to view who has given consent. The nurses come into school with a list of children who are to be vaccinated.

We are aware that the IntraHealth nurses will need to return to school to catch up with any children they have missed, and we will let you know any further details when we receive them.

I can only apologise for the frustration caused by the issues in the organisation of this process, and I will be feeding back our concerns with how the system worked (or, indeed, didn't) to the immunisation team.

Yours sincerely

I Southern
Headteacher
