

Barby CoE Primary School PTA

Virtual Christmas Facebook Fayre 28th November 2020 10am - 9pm

Barby PTA is pleased to announce its first virtual shopping fayre, where 22 local businesses will showcase their unique and fantastic items. Each business will get a 30 minute slot to show off what they sell, timetable overleaf.

Why not head over to the facebook group now and peruse the diverse products available from books, Christmas decorations, jams and chutneys to pet accessories its all there. Every day up into the fayre each seller can post a teaser of what they offer.

If you have any questions, orders or need more information about a certain product you can contact the seller before the fayre.

There will also be a raffle which will be drawn on Saturday evening with prizes donated from these amazing sellers and local businesses.

You are invited to share the link with friends, family, colleagues, next door neighbour...as many people as you can!!
