8th January 2021

Welcome back after Christmas!!

It's such a shame we are not all back together physically, and we know another lockdown is certainly not ideal, but we all know it is for the greater good.

The on-line learning is up and running and each day has been (and will continue to be) a learning curve for everyone. Thank you all so much for your patience, support and kind messages this week. They have been hugely appreciated by all staff.

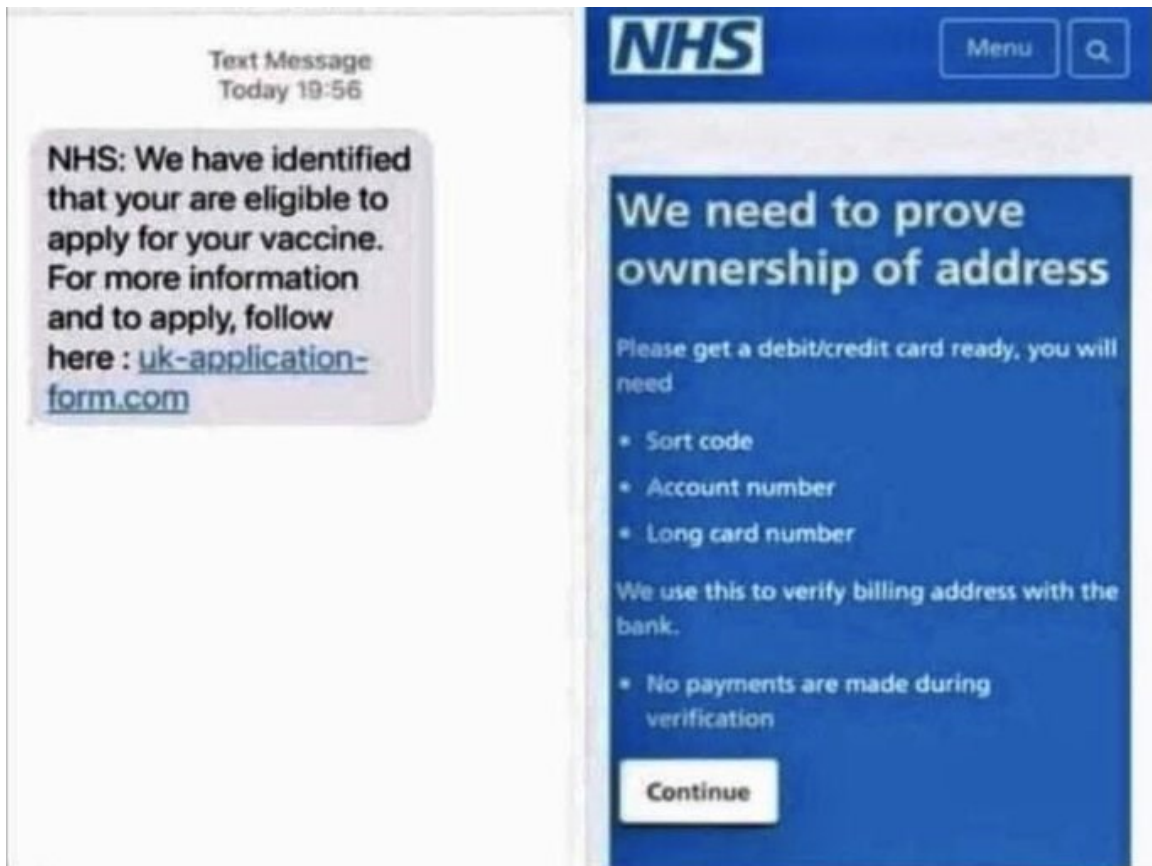

Please do continue to let us know (through the appropriate and relevant channels) if you are experiencing issues or problems. We will do our best to help sort them where we can.

WEEKLY AWARDS

These will start up again next week and will be awarded to pupils working hard both in school and at home. So lots of continued hard work next week and you never know, your name may well appear.....
