Newsletter week ending 15th January 2021

Mrs Truslove writes:

Hello everyone,

It has been lovely to see so many of you this week on Zoom and to hear how you are getting on. In these difficult times it cheered us up to see your lovely smiling faces. We have all been very impressed with the way that you have behaved in these chats and the enthusiasm that you have shown for your learning. Today you should all have received an invite for your Monday morning Zoom 'Hello' and we will send year group invites by the beginning of next week. They will follow similar times and patterns to this week.

Well done to you all for the work that you are sending in, again we have been delighted by the quality and content from many of you. Please remember that we are here if you have any problems or issues with the home learning and we are happy to work these through with you – please phone or email in the first instance.

Next Friday (22nd January) we will be sending home the next home learning packs for red & blue classes (green class already have everything). Please pick up between 9.30am -12.00pm. This will be the last pick up before half term when we will hope to have more information about re-opening. We will change reading books for Reception/Year 1, and children on the 1,2,3 & Away scheme if required.

You are in our thoughts and prayers, and I hope that we will all be able to be together soon.

Stay safe.
