Show Racism the Card

October 2020: The Jenny Hammond Primary School supports Show Racism the Red Card. We cover this in the classrooms with PSHE lessons

Article 2: The article applies to everyone: whatever their race, religion or abilities, whatever they think or say, whatever type of family they come from.

November 2020: Big Hearted Week

As a school we celebrated Anti Bullying Week at The Jenny Hammond Primary School and took part in Odd Socks Day to raise awareness of the importance of being different and celebrating everything that makes us unique.

December 2020: Celebrating Human Rights Day

As a school, we celebrated Human Rights day on December 10th and children completed tasks and challenges in class and at home.

We have also taken part of a community project called 'Notes from Poppy to Holly' in which the children gave a virtual Christmas concert to residents of a care home.
