Mrs Truslove writes:

I would like to offer my huge thanks and appreciation to everyone who has worked so hard during this half term to ensure that the children of East Haddon School are happy, healthy and educated. I know that this has been a very difficult time for many and that everyone has had their own struggles. However, I have been delighted with the work that we have seen submitted to school, the enthusiasm of the children in their Zoom meetings and the positivity shown by everyone despite what is happening around us. The staff and I are thoroughly enjoying working with the children that we do have in school, but are really missing those that can't be here, and have our fingers crossed for positive news about full reopening soon.

I have continued to work closely with the governing body during the closure and thank them for their time and support.

Next week is half term and I hope that you will all enjoy a break, even if it isn't quite the holiday we would have hoped for.

Any messages sent to the class emails today will be responded to. After that the class emails will be unmonitored until Monday 22nd February.
