Friday 5th March 2021

Dear parents, pupils, governors, staff and parishioners,

I feel incredibly excited writing this newsletter today as I know on Monday we will be back together again as a whole school community. Well done to all of our families at home who have managed to juggle home schooling and work. You have done an incredible job and we know that it was not easy. Well done to our wonderful children at home for working so hard and trying their best when they have been missing their friends and their normal routine. Well done to our children in school who have adapted and coped to the changes. I would also like to say a huge thank you and well done to all the incredible staff here at Our Lady's who again overnight adapted to a new way of working supporting children at home as well as children in school. They truly are an amazing team!

Yesterday I sent out a letter highlighting everything about the return to school. It also has timings for the school day and which gate to enter and exit from. Please make sure that you read this before Monday. I hope you all have a lovely weekend and we cannot wait to see you all next week!

God Bless

Names for our display board in the hall.

Mrs VP has started the 'God has called you by your name,' display in the hall. It is ready and waiting for your names to be added to it when you come back to school next week. Please remember to bring your name in so we can get it added.

World Book Day

As we couldn't celebrate World Book day all together this year we have a lovely activity ready for next week when the children are all back in school. We are not going to have our usual dressing up this year but we will make sure that we celebrate our love of reading. On Class Dojo I posted information about Hunts Bookshop in Rugby who are selling books with £1 off. Please order directly through the bookshop and we will get the books distributed to the children when they are delivered. It is our little way of helping a local business.

Mass with Father Teddy

Remember from home you can join Father Teddy as he celebrates Mass each weekend at 9.30am from St Anne's Catholic Church, Wappenbury. The link to use is fb.me/stanneswappenbury
