Newsletter week ending 12th March 2021

Mrs Truslove writes:

What a fantastic week it has been with everyone back and looking well (for the most part!). Can I just remind parents/carers that if children are unwell they should not be sent to school as we are still vulnerable. If children have been sick they should not return to school for at least 48 hours and have kept down a full meal. If they have any of the signs of Covid they should remain at home and get a test. This is the safest and quickest way for us to return to normality.

Thank you for your book recommendations - we should have a new selection with us soon.

Red Nose Day – Friday 19th March

To support Red Nose Day 2021 we are asking the children to bring £1 and sport a crazy hair-do or a crazy hat! Otherwise, deely-boppers, red noses, whatever you have to hand that looks fun will be fine.

Mrs Barnes/Mrs Truslove

We have really enjoyed teaching the children this week and watching them playing with their friends again. Thank you for sending your work in, it has been lovely to see all of the effort that you put in to your home learning.

Next week in maths Year 1 will be learning mental addition and subtraction. Reception will be exploring measurement.

Mrs Gibbins

It has been good to see the children this week. We have put the paintings up on our class gallery wall. They look lovely and cheerful.

The children have started to share their Power points with the class. They have been very interesting to listen to. You can either send them on a memory stick or e-mail them to school. Homework is coming home tonight. Remember to send back by Wednesday. Everybody will be completing 5 division next week.

Mrs Pickles/Mr Wilkinson

It is the usual spelling homework sheet this week.

Next week in maths we will be looking at and measuring angles.
