READING

This week's book recommendations have been written by Year 4 children

I recommend The Dragon in the Library by Louie Stowell as I like it when someone has to try and wake up the dragon in the library to get its magical powers. The main character (Kit) has to try and stop this from happening. You

The story is very interesting and I love books about cricket! There is a whole

I recommend The Kaboom Kid by David Warner. It is written by a real international cricketer!

I recommend Knights and Bikes Rebel Bicycle Club by Gabrielle Kent. In this book, Nessa and Demelza go to a castle to look for treasure and find a severed head...and so the story begins! I think that you will enjoy this because it is will like this book if you are in to mysteries and adventure!	series of books so you can read them all.	funny and has a good storyline full of adventure and mystery.

Art For Research Reading competition

Don't forget there is still time to enter your artwork around "The Environment" theme in the Art for Research Reading competition. The closing date is 26th April. See the website for details of how to do this.

<https://www.artforresearchreading.com/pages/rules.html>

There is a £2 suggested donation for Cancer Research, which should be made via their "Just Giving" page.

Why not have a look at some of Loddon children's fantastic artwork that has been submitted so far, on their Facebook page?
