

Week 26 26th March 2021

Dear Families,

I do hope that this Newsletter finds you well. This week marks the third week back for our children. We have noticed that some are struggling a little more this week with the routines and expectations and as ever our skilled team are modelling the expectations, praising and rewarding what we want to see and working with families to support.

Next week is a short one and the Spring Term ends on Thursday the 1st April. School will re-open on Monday 19th April following the Easter holiday.

The Brunswick Team wishes you a peaceful and restful holiday when it arrives. We will expect to see all children in school next week. Holidays in term time are not authorised and we do issue fixed penalty notices.

Warm wishes

Alison Colbran Interim Headteacher

Useful Information for School/Parents

Brighton and Hove City Council have provided some useful information on a whole range of services available in the city. You will find this information attached to this Newsletter.

Parent/Carer Consultations

On Monday 29th March, class teachers will post a timetable link on Class Dojo, for parents/carers to book a 10 minute Zoom or phone call. The focus of the meetings on the week beginning 26th April will be the recovery curriculum and progress.

Brunswick PTFA – a message from Gillian Ramn, Chair of the PTFA

We hope you are all enjoying being back into the school routine. Clearly the children grew a lot during lockdown, so we are pleased to be holding another pre-worn uniform sale this Saturday 27th March. The sale will be held in the carpark in front of the school office between 10am - 12pm and staffed by our lovely volunteers. Please keep yourself and everyone safe by wearing a mask and observing social distancing. Items for sale include dresses, shorts, trousers, fleeces, jumpers, cardigans and polo shirts. We even have some PE kit. Suggested donation for most items is £1 or .50p for PE kit and polo shirts. We won't be giving change or handling any money so please bring small change to drop into our donation boxes. Any donations you can spare are welcome so give whatever you can.

We would like to say a HUGE thank you to everyone who bought a ticket in our Virtual Balloon Race. We are also very grateful to Hobbycraft Brighton, Quaff Fine Wine Merchant and Baroque Bespoke Jewellery for donating lovely prizes to the top three balloons. This is a particularly difficult year for businesses and retail, so we are extra thankful for their generosity.

After school clubs and holiday activities

Please find attached to this Newsletter lots of exciting information about clubs starting up again after the Easter holidays. Outdoor clubs restarting are Lioness Sports, The Outdoors Project and Albion in the Community. Brunswick Buddies are running a half term holiday club from Tuesday 1st June –Friday 4th June. There is an exciting Easter Holiday programme organised for families of children with SEND.
