Congratulations to Year 5 this week.

Welcome back I hope everyone enjoyed the Easter break. We are also welcoming back Miss Taylor into Year 4 for this term.

As yet we will not be changing any of the COVID procedures which were in place before Easter. We will continue to monitor any information from the DFE and Local Authority, as soon as it is deemed to be safe, we will inform parents of the changes being made.

We have had one nomination for the post of Parent Governor, that was for Miss Carr, she is therefore elected unopposed. Congratulations to her!

Thank you for the questionnaire responses. The report from these returns will be with parents shortly.

The school has arranged for more summer schools later this term. It will again be led by Mr Fenton from Key PE Sports. A member of staff, Mrs Mboge, will also be involved in the running of these events. The first week will be from Monday 7th June. As last year, we will also run the club for the first 4 weeks of the summer holidays, starting from Monday 26th July. More details will be with parents in the coming weeks.

We will also restart after school catch up lessons from next Monday. More details will follow this week.

A reminder that our Year 4 Football Skills Club starts tomorrow 3:15-4:15pm
