Dates for your Diary

22nd July - School Closes

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our St John's family: parents/carers, staff, directors, FOSJ group, volunteers but most of all our children. It has been a very challenging year but still filled with many memories for our children to cherish. The staff work tirelessly to provide the best learning experiences and their dedication is admirable.

Wishing you all a great summer holiday and we look forward to welcoming you back on Monday 6th September.

Best wishes,
Laura Butcher, Principal

The time has arrived for us to say a final farewell to our Y 6 children. It is hard to believe it is time for them to move on. The children have been a credit to themselves, our school and their families. We wish them every success as they make the transition to high school. Good Luck Year 6 we are immensely proud of you all.

FOSJ AGM

FOSJ AGM meeting will be held on 30th September at 6pm

Yesterday, FOSJ organised a treat for the children. The local ice cream van came to school to serve the children a much needed ice cream.

Thank you to everyone who to part in the 'Build a Bear raffle, you raised over £365 for school funds. The winners were Freddie from Reception and Mia from Year 3/4. Thank you for your continued support.

Attendance Matters

The world is run by those who turn up!
Attending school every day = 100%
attendance = Zero learning lost
