

Wimborne Weekly - Oct 3

Harvest Festival

Just a reminder that we will be holding our harvest festival at school on 18th October. Our chosen charity is Portsmouth Foodbank. Children can bring in an item of non-perishable food to donate on Monday and take it to their classroom; each class has a harvest box to try to fill. Thank you in anticipation.

Parents' Evening

Please remember to book your appointment for Parents' Evening; please contact the school office if you are having difficulty making an online booking and they will be happy to assist you.

Junior Road Safety Officers- JRSO's

Mrs Sargeant would like to introduce Wimborne Primary Schools JRSO's.

The following children will be representing their year group and school to help teach the other pupils, teachers and parents alike about road safety and keeping ourselves safe on the roads.

Year 2- Eloise Booth, Ellena Daniel

Year 3 - Layton Southern-Popham, Jessica Brocks

Year 4 - Florence Crosby

Year 5 - Dolly Speers, Esther Anderson

Year 6 - Joanne Campbell, Daisy Nolan, Lily Lackenby, Laily O'Connell, Sophie Taylor

Our first task was to meet with our lollipop man, Tom. The JRSO's interviewed Tom in school, to find out about his important role. The JRSO's were respectful and asked brilliant questions too. It was an absolute pleasure to be part of that interview process. They are a real credit to the school.

Well done to all of our JRSO's.

Every Little (Blue Token) Helps

Our friends at 5th Portsmouth Scout group are bidding for funds to create an amazing community garden. They are one of 3 charities asking for your vote in Tesco community grant voting between now and 31st December. They would love if you could add your blue token/s to their pot whenever you shop in Tesco. To find out more go to fb.me/5thPortsmouth.
