NEWSLETTER - Autumn 1 Week 7 Page 2

It's been a lovely last day of term with children rotating round the classrooms, enjoying different activities for our Spirituality day. Please ask your child about the work they have completed and collected in their special Spirituality bags when they come home today.

Looking ahead now to the next half term please see below and save the dates for Autumn 2 planned events. We are excited to launch our new reading schemes in this first week back and share all the information about our 5 Ways to Well Being which has already been introduced to staff, children and Governors and we will begin to embed. We are aiming to achieve 'The Emotionally Friendly Schools' Bronze award this academic year.
