

Sichi-go-san!

Sichi-Go-San is a Japanese festival.

What we've been doing.

- Year 5/6's have been learning about Festivals and one in particular was 'Sichi-Go-San' it's a Japanese festival that goes on annually on the 15th of November or the nearest weekend.

Silently, the children celebrating walk into the temple were thousands of children and adults stand for there children's celebration.

Who liked what?

- 'I like the sweets more because it means that you live longer if you get given them'. (Charlie)
- 'I like the clothing more because it has beautiful patterns and colours'. (Maisey).
- 'I thought the clothing was incredible because it had amazing shapes and terrific colours'. (Mrs Farley).
- 'I love the thought that on your celebration it gives good luck and SWEETS!'. (Lily).

Who enjoyed it?

These are the people that enjoyed learning about it: Mollie-Mae, Dollie, Jessica, Jessica, Lucy, Caitlin, Ava, Mackenzie, Maddie, Hayden, Lily and Maisey .

Mollie enjoyed learning about Sichi-Go-San because she likes learning about festivals from other countries because they are different from our festivals.

Dollie enjoyed learning about Sichi go san because she thinks that the clothes have amazing funky patterns.

Ava has an interest in clothes and really enjoyed the design of these outfit.

Facts on the sweets.

The sweets symbolise long life and good luck. The bag with the sweets in is very long that's why it symbolises long life.

The sweets symbolise good luck because red and white are there good luck colours.

BY MAISEY

AND

BY LILY

